

Matt is a kind of person that you never want to let go of. He always had a sparkly smile on his face. Matt was one of my most favorite people in the whole wide world. He was always happy and never ever mad. He was the best at the wrapping paper fights on Christmas Eve and he was the life of all the parties. Matt always had room in his heart for more people to love. He had a great family and great friends, and he let me know I was special to him. Matt had a great attitude that was full of happiness, fun, and love. Though Matt's heart doesn't beat in him right now, it still beats in me. And it will forever and ever. Thank you Matt for being a part of my life, you made a big difference.

I love you, Matt.
